IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
ORDINARY ORIGINAL CIVIL JURISDICTION.

S. No. 524 of 1984.

Krishna I. Srinivasan and Anr. ...Plaintiff.

Versus.

Venkatesha and Ors. ...Defendants.

None for plaintiffs.
Ms. M. Mody i/b C.A. Menan for defendant no.7.and 8.
Ms. Usha Gadagkar i/b Khona & Kayser for defendant no. 1 and 6.

CORAM: V.C.DAGA, J.
DATED : 12.01.2006.

P.C.:-

. The learned counsel appearing for defendant no. 1 and 6 makes a statement that defendant no. 2, 3, 4, 5 and 7 are dead. No steps have been taken by the plaintiffs to substitute their names. Nobody is present on behalf of the plaintiffs when the matter is called out.

. The learned counsel appearing for defendant No. 1 and 6 further states that the plaintiff nos. 1 and 2 are dead.

. In that view of the matter, suit is liable to be dismissed as abated. As nobody is appearing on behalf of the plaintiffs,the suit is dismissed for want of prosecution with no order as to costs.

V.C.DAGA, J.